

Teaching God's Infinite Wisdom (TGIW) meetings are organized to help bring men into a more passionate relationship with Jesus Christ, equipping them to live Biblically consistent lives that model character and integrity, so that God receives all the glory and God's people experience the joy.

TGIW promotes establishing new and cementing old relationships between Christian men. It is a non-denominational, Christ-focused time to fill the tank and recharge the batteries with LIVE teaching & small group discussion based around biblical character building. These weekly meetings are open to the public and will gather in a non-church facility (i.e., restaurant, hotel, civic club, etc.). We are hoping to reach men who may or may not have any church background, and all attendees are encouraged to invite business associates and friends of all ages. The original group in Lee's Summit, MO, which was established in September 2001, has attracted over 750 men, ages 15-80, from over 135 different area churches and 35 denominations, with an average weekly attendance of near 100.

Adrian's Cafe, 6:30 a.m.

Location: 9940 College, next to Starbucks in Overland Park, KS

You will enjoy tasty rolls and hot coffee along with character based teaching and interaction with other men around the topic of the day.

Bring a friend and see what it's all about. The group meets each Wednesday, all year. For more information, contact Joe Panegasser: 913-681-8288.
